About Our Institute

Our university, Gujarat Vidyapith was founded by Mahatma Gandhi in the year 1920. It began as Rashtriya Vidyapith, i.e. as National Institution of Higher Education. During the British rule in india, Gujarat Vidyapith took upon itself the task of preparing its students for fighting for independence. After 1947, the university is concerned with providing education based on Nai Talim and preparing grass root workers for the society. In 1963, Gujarat Vidyapith was declared a deemed university under section 3 F of UGC act. The Faculty of Physical Education & Sports Science, Gujarat Vidyapith, Sadra was founded in 1989. The institute is located on the banks of river Sabarmati. It is situated in Sadra village of Gandhinagar district in Gujarat. The 33.71 acre campus has college building, central library, research laboratory, gymnasium, various play grounds, hostels, prayer hall and staff quarters.
